"Throwing back to my journey from a handball-holic to a member of the 3rd runner-up team in the handball event at the 15th National Games historically, has allowed me to fully appreciate the critical importance of early-stage training and development. The earlier a youngsters' potential is cultivated, the greater the opportunity for athletes to progress further and more rapidly in their sporting careers. Working at school and growing alongside youngsters on their sporting journey, inspiring them with my own experiences and knowledge, gives me a profound sense of achievement as a SSPC."

RATP offers on-job training courses to enhance the working ability and skillset of athletes. "Advanced AI Application Course effectively assists in my daily work and makes it easier for me. It also allows me to participate in handball in another capacity and strive a balance among work, sports and life."

前港隊空手道運動員蔡韻瑜成功配對至中國香港體操總會，任職項目主任逾一年。

「看到隊友透過計劃成功轉型，當我計劃退役時，自然想起這個轉型平台。在體育機構工作既熟悉又具挑戰性，我主要負責『跑酷(Parkour)』項目及學校推廣。最難忘的是首次一手包辦跑酷比賽，從構思、跨部門協調到執行，總會都給予我極大的信任、資源及決策支持，讓我能放膽嘗試。這些切實且多元化的經驗，正是我轉型期最寶貴的收穫。」

日後，她將繼續勇於嘗試不同範疇，探索發展方向，以運動員的堅韌在全新領域發展所長。

Retired Karate athlete CHOI Wan Yu was successfully matched with the Gymnastics Association of Hong Kong, China, where she has been serving as a project officer for over a year.

Having witnessed her teammates successfully transition through the programme, CHOI naturally thought of this platform when she began planning her retirement. She found working within a sports organization to be both familiar and challenging, with her primary responsibilities involving the management of Parkour projects and school outreach. Her most memorable milestone so far was organizing a Parkour competition entirely from scratch. From initial conception and cross-departmental coordination to final execution, the association granted her immense trust, resources, and decision-making authority, empowering her to take bold initiatives. For CHOI, this hands-on, multifaceted experience has been the most valuable reward of her career transition.

Looking ahead, she will continue to embrace new challenges across various fields and explore her future potential, leveraging an athlete's resilience to thrive in this entirely new arena.

僱主分享 EMPLOYER SHARING

中國香港體操總會(體操總會)期望透過計劃為退役運動員提供就業機會，協助他們了解總會運作並累積實戰經驗，共同推動體育發展。

The Gymnastics Association of Hong Kong, China aims to provide employment opportunities for retired athletes through this programme, assisting them in understanding the Association's operations and accumulating practical experience to jointly promote the development of sports.

The Association stated, "Not only does the programme provide valuable human resources for the Association, but CHOI has also leveraged her background as an athlete to offer numerous constructive suggestions for optimizing event execution. Her vibrant energy and sportsmanship have deeply inspired our Secretariat team. To assist her in gaining hands-on experience, we have arranged for her to take on various roles, such as event emcee and coordinator, under the mentorship of senior staff."

The Association highly commended CHOI for her proactive communication, her ability to overcome challenges, and her resilient execution skills. They look forward to seeing her continue to demonstrate leadership and initiative, extending the true spirit of an athlete into an even broader range of fields.

前港隊保齡球運動員吳紫燕透過計劃資助，修讀香港浸會大學持續進修學院的工商高等文憑（休閒、康樂及運動管理）。「起初要兼顧工作與學業，確實感到吃力。但我透過主動提問、課後搜集資料，並嚴格規劃時間表，很快便建立起自己的學習規律。」她補充道：「計劃的進修資助減輕了經濟負擔，更給予我重拾書包的力量。寄語計劃進修或現正進修的運動員，進修之路雖艱苦，但每一步都是在為日後的精彩人生增值。」

Retired Tenpin bowling athlete Milki NG utilized the programme's funding to pursue an Advanced Diploma in Business (Leisure, Recreation and Sports Management) at the School of Continuing Education, Hong Kong Baptist University.

Milki found balancing work and studies to be quite challenging initially. However, by proactively asking questions, conducting research after class, and strictly managing her schedule, she quickly established a consistent study routine.

Milki added that the education subsidy from the programme significantly eased her financial burden and gave her the strength to pursue her studies. Her message to fellow athletes who are considering or are currently pursuing further education is that though the academic journey can be demanding, every single step adds value to their future, paving the way for a brilliant life ahead.

The JC Project MuSE, executed by SLCL, has entered its second year. Based on the "Long-Term Athlete Development" model, the programme utilizes a three-phase curriculum to comprehensively foster youth development across physical, psychological, and emotional dimensions.

Following the first two tiers - Obstacle Course Racing Experience and Specific Sports Training, the programme is launching the brand new "Tier 3: Advanced Sports Training" this year. Specially designed for outstanding students, this tier aims to further strengthen their athletic development and provide an elite athlete support experience to enhance physical fitness, build mental resilience, and facilitate talent identification.

Additionally, the programme takes students to professional sports training bases, such as the Jockey Club Kitchee Centre, to learn how professional athletes train in real world settings. Through adventure centre training, students also experience perseverance and mutual support, cultivating positive values such as teamwork.

李剛慧表示，體育大使計劃讓她得以結合「運動員」和「司儀」的雙重身份。主持過程中，她透過分享自身堅持與挫敗中成長的故事，並發掘受訪運動員背後的奮鬥歷程，向大眾傳遞運動的深層價值與體育精神。走進校園時，看著學生運動員拼搏的身影，也讓她重溫初心，並深切體會到「用言語發揮影響力」的意義。對她而言，每一次的大使活動不僅是推廣體育，更是一段與社區共同成長、傳遞正能量的寶貴歷程。

Accustomed to proving herself through action on the competition stage, Kriztal LI (Karate) has embraced a new role through the HKACED Ambassador Programme. Transitioning from physical performance to verbal sharing, she now serves as an emcee for sports events and actively participates in school outreach.

By blending her dual identities as an athlete and an emcee, Kriztal uses her personal journey of perseverance and the inspiring stories of fellow athletes to convey the true spirit of sports to the public. Her face to face interactions with student-athletes have further reinforced the power of shared experiences. For Kriztal, each ambassador activity is more than just an event, it is a meaningful milestone for personal growth and a valuable opportunity to inspire the community with positive energy.

To raise awareness of the comprehensive support we offer, the Hong Kong Athletes Career and Education Department (HKACED) introduced its first-ever online seminar this year, alongside our traditional in-person exchange sessions. This new initiative was met with an enthusiastic response, drawing over 100 participants, including athletes, coaches, national sports association staff, and parents. This milestone has successfully extended HKACED's reach deeper into the community. Moving forward, we will adopt a "dual-track" (online and offline) approach, actively visiting various sports teams to host seminars and sharing sessions.

Through face-to-face exchanges, HKACED aims to help more athletes gain a deeper understanding of our diversified career support, career planning, and transition mechanisms. As athletes embark on the journey of their second careers, HKACED will always stand by them as a solid pillar of support, dedicated to providing the most timely and tailored resources every step of the way.
